Thank you

Dear Friends,

I begin today with an apology for the cancellation at short notice of last Sunday (St Luke's day" Mass. Occasionally it is necessary to cancel services and I always try to inform people personally and via Facebook and our Website. I apologise at the inconvenience.

Usually these notes provide an opportunity for me to write what to all intents and purposes is a mini sermon. However, today I have a news round up of various matters

Church Heating.

Following problems before the lock down in March with one of our heaters in Church, I am pleased to say we have finally had them serviced and the heating elements checked. There are many different forms of heating on the market but I believe our current system has some years life left in it so we will continue with what we inherited from our Methodist friends.

Organist

As reported last week, Mrs Tatyana Angelova who has been our part time organist since January is leaving us today.

This is very sad news because Tatyana has become part of our little family at St Augustine's. However, the good news is she may be able to transfer her association with the ACC to our Rochester parish.

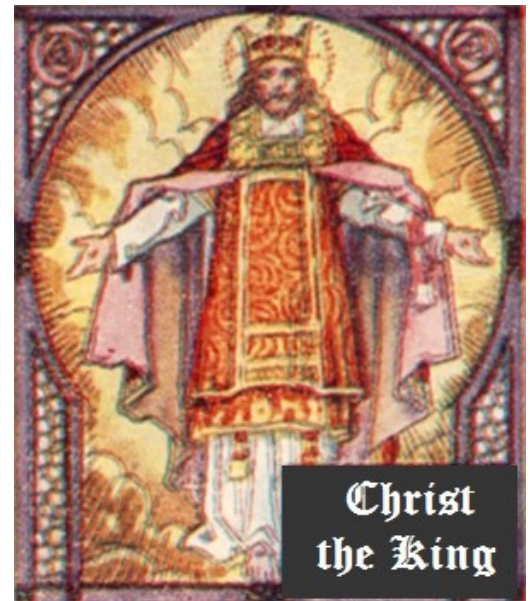

Thank you Tatyana for your contribution to our worship.

The good news is that it appears that we may already have found a new organist who can play for us full time and permanently. Watch this space!

New Parish Website

We are very excited at the launch of our new parish Website:

Please read our Covid-19 worship notice

www.staugustineacc.uk

Already this is attracting interest. It is a shame that the Covid-19 measures currently in place and the ill health of some key folk in our congregation is preventing us from re-establishing our prelock-down routine. But we must pray that this will soon pass and in the meantime continue to keep everyone safe.

Financial Giving

As you all know, St Augustine's relies upon the generosity of our members, friends, supporters and visitors. Since March the only real income we have received is from those in our congregation who have established Standing Orders to pay money directly into our bank account. Plate Collections have been impossible and the donations made by visitors have, with no visitors, disappeared.

Sadly just like everyone, businesses and individuals alike, the Church still has bills to pay. If you usually give a donation or tithe to us, or to another Church, and those donations or your tithing has been interrupted by the Pandemic, please think about rectifying this and begin again — if possible making up any short fall.

Confirmations

If all goes according to plan, in these uncertain times, today will see me having the privilege and responsibility of conferring the Sacrament of Confirmation on Nick Yates, Jennifer Whittaker and Riley Hall. Please pray for all of them.

Margaret Mead

My parents have been noted for their absence since we reopened St Augustine's for worship in August. Partly this due to them continuing to, very sensibly, shelter from the Virus. However my mother has also been in considerable knee pain. I am pleased to say that she now has a date, 30th October, for her preassessment for the knee replacement operation she needs. Prayers for her please.

Toby

I am very thankful for the kind messages and prayers for my little dog Toby. Last week I was told by the vet I had to make the terrible decision to say goodbye to him. I really thought his time had come.

However, he has perked up enormously and it seems I will have him for some time to come. It doesn't matter how long — the time we have will not be wasted. This reprieve has given him the opportunity to be a good 'uncle' to my two new puppies; Daisy and Minnie!
